TAKE ACTION

COME TO A TALK

DONATE TO SUPPORT ACTION

SO WHAT’S THE PLAN?

Our Government doesn’t give a f about its responsibilities. The country is in ruins. You know it, I know, they know it. That means it’s up to us to come together and be the change we need.

We need bold, un-ignorable action that confronts the fossil fuel elites. We refuse to comply with a system which is killing millions around the world, and that’s why we have declared airports a site of nonviolent civil resistance.

We can’t do this alone, we have a plan for this Summer, are you willing help make this happen?
“WHAT WE DO OVER THE NEXT THREE TO FOUR YEARS, I BELIEVE, IS GOING TO DETERMINE THE FUTURE OF HUMANITY.”

Sir David King, the former Chief Scientific Advisor to the UK Government, 2021

How people are taking on oil.

Taking Action

THE PLAN.

TRUTH

We are being lied to. We need to face up to the scale of the crisis that we are facing. Everything we know and love is threatened by the breakdown of our climate. Our economy, our homes our way of life. You, me, scientists, press, politicians, educators… everyone needs to face up to the reality of what is being done to us.
Every one of us feels alone in this. But when we come together, then we can start to grapple with the challenge of our lifetimes. When we come together we are powerful, and we can create meaningful change and make history. We come to talks and events, we cook and eat together, we train in nonviolent action and when we are ready we join our local group and take action.

ACTION

This is how civil resistance works: applying nonviolent pressure until we force change to happen. It’s how the Freedom Riders forced an end to segregated buses in 1961. It’s how disabled people won accessible transport in the nineties. It’s how we’ll win and force this criminal government to act on the unfolding climate disaster by stopping new oil and gas. No-one’s going to save us, we need to come together to do that for ourselves.

About us

Just Stop Oil is a nonviolent civil resistance group in the UK. In 2022 we started taking action to demand the UK Government stop licensing all new oil, gas and coal projects. We have won on this ✓ Civil resistance works.
Our governments must work together to establish a legally binding treaty to stop extracting and burning oil, gas and coal by 2030 as well as supporting and financing other countries to make a fast, fair, and just transition.

This can be accomplished by endorsing the Fossil Fuel Non-Proliferation Treaty Initiative and seeking a negotiating mandate to establish the treaty.

Just Stop Oil activists paint Parliament Square orange in latest protest
Just Stop Oil said it was to celebrate the government’s commitment to end all new licences for fossil fuel extraction.
Stonehenge sprayed with orange powder paint by Just Stop Oil activists

Two people arrested, say police, while Rishi Sunak's comments on protest prompt response from Labour donor

Two people have been arrested after Just Stop Oil activists sprayed orange powder paint over Stonehenge.

Rishi Sunak condemned the action, saying: “This is a disgraceful act of vandalism to one of the UK’s and the world’s oldest and most important monuments.”

Dale Vince, the Labour donor and past backer of Just Stop Oil (JSO), responded to a comment by Sunak that a “certain Labour party donor” should condemn the action by saying: “Since Rishi Sunak has asked me personally to comment, I will. I don’t support what JSO did today, it’s that simple. But there are far worse actions we could focus on, far more harmful ones - like pushing two million children and their families into poverty.”

The Labour leader, Keir Starmer, said the group was “pathetic”. “Those responsible must face the full force of the law,” he said.
Members of the public attempted to stop the spraying and a visitor managed to wrestle a spray can from one of the protesters.

Wiltshire police said: “We have arrested two people following an incident at Stonehenge this afternoon. At around noon, we responded to a report that orange paint had been sprayed on some of the stones by two suspects. Officers attended the scene and arrested two people on suspicion of damaging the ancient monument. Our inquiries are ongoing.”

The protest came as thousands of druids and revellers prepared to travel to the monument for the summer solstice.

Sean Moran, a guide, said: “It was devastating. I was very angry. We were having a great time and enjoying it when it happened. There’s living lichen on those stones. Biologists from around the world [come] to study it … Did they think of that?”

A senior druid and pagan priest, King Arthur Pendragon, said he “totally” disapproved of the Just Stop Oil protest and that the group’s actions “alienate any sympathy” for their cause.

Pendragon, who is standing as an independent parliamentary candidate for the area, said: “Stonehenge is a living, working temple at times of celebration and pilgrimage such as the summer solstice and, as a well-known protester myself, I totally disapprove of such behaviour as demonstrated by these people, who do nothing to enhance and everything to alienate any sympathy anyone has or had for their cause.”

The priest has previously been involved in several protests at the monument and lost a legal challenge over a £15 car parking charge at the site in 2017, claiming the fee breached his human rights.

Paul Anderson, who was visiting the stones from Newcastle upon Tyne, said: “We were around the other side and we saw a lot of orange mist. I can’t see how that’s good publicity, doing something like that to an ancient monument. Coming from Newcastle, after the Sycamore Gap tree was felled, it beggars belief.”

His wife, Elaine Anderson, said: “It’s ruined the day, but not the holiday. I’m not going to let them. How dare you? It’s the last thing you’d expect.”

Mike and Julie, who did not wish to give their surnames and had come from the west coast of the US to visit Stonehenge, said it was a shame the path around the stones was closed after the incident. Mike said: “They are ruining it for people who have come from across the world to have their moment and see it.”

In a statement, JSO said it was time for “megalithic action” and called for the next UK government to agree a plan to stop the extraction and burning of oil, gas and coal by 2030.
It said: “Continuing to burn coal, oil and gas will result in the death of millions. We have to come together to defend humanity, or we risk everything. That’s why Just Stop Oil is demanding that our next government sign up to a legally binding treaty to phase out fossil fuels by 2030.”
Just Stop Oil pair sentenced for snooker protest

A World Snooker Championship match between Robert Milkins and Joe Perry was disrupted at Sheffield’s Crucible Theatre

Sheffield Magistrates' Court

10 July 2024
A Just Stop Oil protester who jumped onto a snooker table and covered it in orange powder during the World Snooker Championship has been given an 18-month community order.

Edred Whittingham, 26, disrupted a match between Robert Milkins and Joe Perry at Sheffield's Crucible Theatre on 17 April 2023, with an international TV audience witnessing the protest.

On Wednesday at Sheffield Magistrates' Court, he was also told to pay £899 in compensation for damaging the table and asked to carry out 200 hours of unpaid work.

Whittingham, of Exeter, denied a criminal damage charge but was found guilty after a one-day trial in May.

Co-defendant Margaret Reid, 53, from Kendal, in Cumbria, was given a two-year community order and told to carry out 100 hours of unpaid work after being found guilty of attempting to cause criminal damage on another table.

Completion of the first-round match was delayed until the following day as a result of the protest, with Whittingham throwing dyed corn starch powder.

Reid's attempts to disrupt the match on the other table, on which Mark Allen and Fan Zhengyi were playing, were foiled when she was stopped by referee Olivier Marteel.

District Judge Daniel Curtis told the pair prison was “almost inevitable” if they continued their criminal activities.
Spectators were "robbed" of entertainment when the matches were stopped, World Snooker Tour chief executive officer Simon Brownell said in a victim impact statement read to court.

"They bought a ticket to our event and gave their best effort to destroy it, without a care in the world for the thousands of people who saved their money to attend," he said.

Security costs had increased by "hundreds of thousands of pounds" following the incident, he added.

In mitigation for Whittingham, the court heard the type of substance was selected "not to cause maximum damage but simply to have a visual effect as part of the protest".

Representing herself in court, Reid said: "I'm a pretty boring middle-aged person that, like a lot of people, tries to do their best - it would have been much easier to stay at home and pretend my little community was going to be fine."

Sentencing the pair to community orders, Judge Curtis said some people "will be highly critical" of not sending them to prison, adding he had to apply the sentencing guidelines.

Outside court, Whittingham told the BBC he would continue protesting, adding: "We're facing a climate crisis.

"Prison time, community service, it's not going to deter us."
Whittingham was also told to carry out a 25-day rehabilitation order along with paying £390 in trial costs.

Reid was given a 10-day rehabilitation order, told to pay £390 trial costs and handed a £114 victim surcharge.

Just Stop Oil activists found guilty over M25 disruption plans

Just Stop Oil activists outside the Southwark Crown Court, July 11, 2024 until their sentencing hearing next Thursday and face lengthy prison sentences, despite the United Nations’ condemnation of the trial.

The jury entered guilty verdicts against all defendants yesterday, ruling that the climate crisis was “irrelevant” to the trial.

In her closing statement, 22-year-old Ms Gethin said: “People are dying already, my generation is being cast into the dust.

“We are told this is a functioning democracy, but that direct actions like this are not justified.

“It is in that democracy that no-one has been held responsible for the billions of pounds wasted on PPE, for the lives lost in Grenfell Tower, for the Post Office scandal.

“Is it justice when the powerful are not held to account, and citizens are prosecuted for calling them out?”

The ruling comes as new Energy Secretary Ed Miliband has ordered an immediate ban on new drilling in the North Sea.
EXCLUSIVE Revealed: The eco mob plot to ruin the summer holidays with activists planning to disrupt flights by glueing themselves to major airport runways

By PIRIYANNA THIRUNIMALAN and TOM KELLY
Eco-zealots are plotting to ruin family holidays this summer by wreaking havoc at airports across the country.

An undercover investigation by The Mail on Sunday can reveal mobs of Just Stop Oil activists plan to storm terminal buildings to hold sit-ins, glue themselves to runways and even climb on to jets to paralyse the travel industry.

Tory MPs last night accused the group of harming their cause by 'targeting happiness with misery' and warned their cavalier plans could risk lives.

Blueprints for the summer of chaos – which aims to bring flights to a standstill day after day and destroy the holidays of 'ordinary people' – were unveiled at a strategy meeting of 100 hardcore campaigners in Birmingham last week.

At the meeting, which was attended by an undercover reporter, JSO co-founder Indigo Rumbelow was greeted by cheers as she told the audience: ‘We are going to continue to resist. We're going to ratchet it up.'

The Mail on Sunday can Just Stop Oil activists plan to storm terminal buildings to hold sit-ins, glue themselves to runways and even climb on to jets to paralyse the travel industry.
'We're going to take our non-violent, peaceful demonstrations to the centre of the carbon economy. We're going to be gathering at airports across the UK.'

Ms Rumbelow, the 29-year-old daughter of a property developer, has previously been arrested for conspiracy to cause public nuisance during the King's Coronation and made headlines last year when Sky News host Mark Austin had to beg her to 'please stop shouting' during an interview.

Outlining a blueprint for causing travel chaos, she advocated:

- Cutting through fences and gluing themselves to runway tarmac;
- Cycling in circles on runways;
- Climbing on to planes to prevent them from taking off;
- Staging sit-ins at terminals 'day after day' to stop passengers getting inside airports.

Miss Rumbelow told the crowd: "We're going to be saying to the Government: 'If you're not going to stop the oil, we're going to be doing it for you.'"

She cited similar protests to use as inspiration for their action, including Hong Kong students 'gathering in sit-ins in the entrances to airports, closing and disrupting them, day after day' during their protests against Chinese rule in 2019.

JSO co-founder Indigo Rumbelow has cited other protests to use as an inspiration for their action.

At the meeting she hailed German eco-activists who 'went on to runways, gluing their hands to the ground'

She said a blind friend of hers was jailed after he 'stood on top of a plane, disrupting tens of flights', and also hailed German eco-activists who 'went on to runways, gluing their hands to the ground'.

'So, close your eyes for a moment, be imaginative, and think about what we could do together,' Ms Rumbelow said. 'We can make this happen at scale this summer.'

Previous protests by the group have included halting traffic on busy roads, targeting an Ashes Test match at Lords and vandalising paintings at the National Gallery.

Ms Rumbelow said: 'We've all in this room disrupted ordinary people in the roads... disrupted ordinary people seeing cultural events, theatre, art shows, football games.'

Who will pay if my flight is cancelled?

Airlines have to compensate passengers if a flight is cancelled or delayed by more than three hours – but only if they are responsible.

And unfortunately, in the case of activists targeting an airport, they wouldn't likely be considered what
'The plan... could involve disrupting people on their holidays as well as business flights. It's not comfortable to disrupt ordinary people, but it's completely necessary because without that disruption we don't get anywhere.'

She concluded: 'Hope to see you in the summer on the runway.'

The Mail on Sunday recently exposed the activists' sinister plan to target MPs outside their homes. Last year, the MoS thwarted the plot by Animal Rebellion extremists to halt the Grand National at Aintree by storming the racetrack.

The latest plot is part of an overhaul of the structure of Just Stop Oil (JSO), with the formation of a new organisation called 'Umbrella' under which JSO will be one of four wings. It will also include a youth wing called Youth Demand, a political wing – Assemble – and one for socio-economic issues called Robin Hood.

Speaking about Youth Demand, JSO member Sam revealed: 'We're going to bring the fight to the politicians and the political parties.

'High-profile actions are going to be happening in March against politicians... and in April we've got this four-day action phase. I'm not going to say the details because we want them to be nice and unprepared waiting for us.'

Private jets and newspapers could be targets under the Robin Hood actions.

One activist, Mel, said: 'Ideas are maybe mass actions at financial institutions, maybe hitting places where billionaires go [such as] private airports and other eye-catching locations... yacht showrooms, is that a thing?

'The final idea is something around the failings of the billionaire-owned press. We should be blocking the printworks or marching on News International... I'm sure you've got some ideas.'

JSO's political 'pillar', Assemble, is looking at standing independent MPs at key constituencies that Labour needs to win in the General Election, and forming a 'House of the People' to be sworn in on the same day as the House of Commons.

Last night, Tory MP Gareth Johnson accused the group of 'targeting happiness with misery'.

Previous protests by the Just Stop Oil have included halting traffic on busy roads, targeting an Ashes Test match at Lords and vandalising paintings at the National Gallery.

'They are creating misery for people trying to go about their daily life and get a well-earned break with their family and children.

'All it will do will make people angry with them and their cause. Everyone wants a clean environment but this is not the way. Running on to runways and climbing on the planes also sounds extremely dangerous and could risk lives.'

A JSO spokesman said: 'This summer, we will take action at airports to create enormous disruption and do what the rich and powerful won't: face the climate emergency and end fossil fuels.'

A spokesman for the Airport Operators Association, the trade body for UK airports, said: 'Aviation is working hard to decarbonise its activities... Instead of engaging in damaging and disruptive stunts like this, we'd call on environmental groups to work with the industry.'

Just Stop Oil are planning a series of protests at airports across the UK and Europe which threaten to cause travel chaos for holidaymakers this summer.

Protesters plan in some cases to glue themselves to runways in the UK and other destinations including Spain, Greece and Turkey.
Hundreds of flights could be delayed by hours or even cancelled as part of the plot by 50 activists, according to the Mirror.

Just Stop Oil’s Phoebe Plummer reportedly warned of “disruption on a scale that has never been seen before” at a meeting attended by an undercover journalist. The group has been critical of the airline industry over its carbon footprint.

She said: “The most exciting part of this plan is that [it’s] going to be part of an international effort. Flights operate on such a tight schedule to control air traffic that with action being caused in cities all around the world we’re talking about radical, unignorable disruption.”
She added: “It’s time to wake up and get real – no summer holiday is more important than food security, housing and the lives of your loved ones. Flying is also a symbol of the gross wealth inequality that’s plaguing our society and if we want to create change we need to adopt a more radical demand.”

Just Stop Oil is planning an alliance with Europe-based A22 Network to cause disruption at major international airports.

Clive Wratten, of the Business Travel Association, said: “These planned protests are a blunt instrument that will alienate the people who can bring the change Just Stop Oil wants. The activists should work with British businesses to create meaningful solutions to our climate crisis.

“They should join airlines and their supply industry in bringing forward sustainable fuels and best practices, and we urge protesters to reconsider chaos bringing progress to a standstill.”

Home Secretary James Cleverly said: “Selfish, disruptive protesters who wreak havoc in people’s everyday lives must be stopped. We have given the police more powers to tackle criminals posing as protesters and are backing officers with the tools they need to prevent serious disruption and disorder. More than 600 protesters were arrested during Just Stop Oil’s latest campaign.”

Conservative MP Gary Johnson told the Mirror: “The actions of Just Stop Oil are counterproductive and put people off their cause. Most people want to see the environment protected but militant, highly disruptive protests just anger those who are often just trying to enjoy a family holiday.”

However a Just Stop Oil spokesman said UK government policy on climate change meant the group’s actions were justified.

They said: “In normal circumstances, the sort of activities you’ve outlined would be unacceptable. However, what is more unacceptable is the last 10 straight months of record-breaking temperatures, governments continue to
More than half of British people plan to travel abroad this summer and three in five have already booked, according to Post Office Travel Money.

Just Stop Oil was founded in 2022 to try to cease the issuing of all new oil, gas and coal licences in the UK.

It has staged dozens of high profile protests, many involving disrupting London traffic.

It has also targeted an Ashes Test match at Lords and members ran on stage during a performance of Les Miserables in the West End.
